

A selection of 25 English songs composed by Sri Chinmoy

The Enthusiasm-Awakeners singing group was formed on 19 December 1999 and is dedicated to learning songs Sri Chinmoy composed in English from that time forward (more than 1,529 songs in less than eight years). In his lifetime, Sri Chinmoy composed over 7,400 English songs and 13,630 Bengali songs.

These 25 songs are a very small sampling of Sri Chinmoy's songs and ones that we consider "mantric" — simple, powerful and endlessly repeatable — as well as our "classic" devotion songs.

Composed at the Self-Transcendence 3100 Mile Race.

Sri Chinmoy commented later that day:

“Dear ones, if you can sing this song once a week, I shall be very grateful to you. Do not worry about your musical capacity. Even if you make mistakes, no harm. And if you can sing the song three times every day — it can be all at the same time or at three different times — I shall be very grateful to you and I shall be very, very, very, very — a million times — proud of you. This will definitely help you in your life of aspiration.”
